Functional Requirements

1) Students

Home > Login / Signup > User dashboard

Profile:

It should contain the details of user such as user name, USN, branch, section, event name, phone number, year and email id.

Calendar of events:

There should be many clubs such as palette (drawing), razzle (dance), chords (music), captcha (photography and videography), pixel (editing), mask (drama), speakers and LLR (speakers league).

Select the event:

Description: The user can select the event and also select payment method.

Input: Main event, Sub event, Enrolment number, Add team member.

Output: Event selected Successfully, also see all detail and delete also.

Processing: The System will add selected data into database.

Registration:

Description: To enter into this site user has to register himself first. Requirements of registration are first name, last name, email-id, password, confirm password etc.

Input: User Details

Output: Filled Registration Details.

Processing: User details are checked with database. Password constraint is checked as per validation.

Payment:

Payment can be done through online or cash. After the payment the admin will provide the user with the receipt.

Status of registered event:

After the successful completion of registration, the admin comes to know the number of users joined the club.

2)Admin

Admin panel

Description: The Admin can add manager, main event, sub-event also.

Input: main event, sub-event, manager.

Output: Add successfully in database.

Processing: The system will add selected data into database.

Manager panel

Description: The manager can add volunteer, main event and sub-event also.

Input: Main event, sub-event, volunteer.

Output: Add successfully in database.

Processing: The system will add selected data into database.

Logout

Description: The system provides the facility to logout from the site

Input: Select logout option

Output: Logout from the system

Processing: User will logout

Functional Requirements for Maintaining Cultural Club Activities

Event Planning and Management

The cultural club should have a system in place to plan, organize and manage various events and activities throughout the year.

Event Promotion and Ticketing

The club should have the system for promoting events and selling tickets if neccessary .

Membership Management

The club should maintain a database of its members , including contact information , membership status, participation history.

Volunteer Coordination

Many cultural club activities rely on volunteer to assist with event setup , registration ,ushering and other tasks .

Communication and Outreach

Effective communication is crucial for engaging members and attracting new participants. The club should have mechanism to send regular updates .

Performance or Workshop Management

if the cultural club hosts performances or workshops , it should have requirements for managing performers or workshop facilitators .

Financial Management

Cultural club activities often require funds for organizing events, purchasing equipments or costumes and covering miscellaneous expenses.

Evaluation and Feedback

it is important to assess the success of cultural club activities and gather feedback from participants